A. These are submitted to the court by non-litigants who think they may have information that will be helpful in deciding a case.

B. This court case (1954) ruled that separate education is not equal.

C. This 3/5ths vote in the Senate is used to end a filibuster.

D. States must adhere to the legal rights given to citizens in the constitution.

E. The takings clause refers to this - the government cannot take land/property without just compensation.

F. This group of people were in favor of a strong national government and were in favor of ratifying the original Constitution as it was.

G. The result of this court case is that everyone must be provided a lawyer in criminal cases even if it is not a federal crime.

H. This court case paved the way to the 24th Amendment.

I. Using the 14th amendment the Bill of rights has been ________ into the states piece by piece. (Selectively)

J. This is the right of the Supreme Court to review laws for their constitutionality.
K. This court case allows permits schools to censor school newspapers

L. This court case made mixed race marriages legal

M. This court case allowed for the court to have the power mentioned in letter "j"

N. Libel, obscenity, fighting words and commercial speech which are not entitled to protection under the First Amendment

O. A procedural rule in the House that allows floor amendments to be made in the time allotted for the bill.

P. This position is needed because the vice president is often not in attendance in the Senate. It is usually held by the longest serving member of the majority party in the Senate.

Q. Giving something and expecting something in return.

R. A provision added to a bill that may or may not be related. It is put there to either ensure passage or defeat.

S. Funds raised by campaigns in unlimited amounts for the purposes of party building activities. BCRA banned this.

T. This court case protects the symbolic speech of burning an American flag.

U. Programs that the Federal government requires States to implement without Federal funding.
Shelby County v Holder struck down part of this law

Party member who serves as a liaison between the party leadership and rank and file members of the legislature. They help ensure party unity by polling members on how they will vote on particular bills.

(EX) This type of law is forbidden by the constitution as it punishes someone retroactively.

U.S. Congressman Scott Perry represents this county.

12th president of the United States